The 1940s were all about rationing, protein stretching, substitutions, rediscovering "grandma's foods", and making do with less. Home cooks made sugarless cookies, eggless cakes, and meatless meals. Cookbooks, magazines, government pamphlets, and food company brochures were full of creative ideas for stretching food supplies.

Planning Paleo meals can be hard, especially if you're used to grains or beans as staple foods. The basic concept looks like this: A huge pile of vegetables - at least half the plate. 1-2 palm-sized servings of animal protein (or 3-4 eggs). Some healthy fat, like olive or coconut oil. Optionally ...
